

RED CROSS WORK

KNITTING TO BE RESUMED— SALVAGE TO FINANCE HOME SERVICE FOR SOLDIERS

The Glendale Chapter of the Red Cross has just received instructions to resume its knitting, that all the work along those lines which can be turned out within the next three months will be needed. Stockings for women and children in sizes running from 5 1/2 to 9 1/2 are wanted, also large, small and medium sweaters and refugee shawls. The shawls can be either knitted or crocheted.

Stocks of yarn have been ordered and are expected to reach Glendale by Thursday and knitters are asked to report to the Chapter. These articles are wanted for refugees in France and Belgium, also refugee clothing. The Chapter is asked to ship every available garment on hand and there is also a call for the property bags which have been made by the Junior Red Cross and these will be shipped without delay.

The Chapter has been notified of a Salvage Institute which is to be held at Pasadena February 25th. L. T. Rowley, Mrs. Hartley Shaw and other Chapter workers interested in this department will attend. The institute will be attended by delegates from Chapters in Southern California and Arizona.

Last Thursday evening the Board of Directors of the Chapter met at headquarters and received reports from heads of departments. The report of Mrs. Arthur Brown, chairman of Home Service Work, was of special interest and brought out the fact that her department is largely financed by the returns from salvage. L. T. Rowley is doing splendid work in that department, but needs help as one man cannot cover all the details. Professor Harry Howe, who was in attendance on the meeting, expressed the conviction that High School students could be interested to the point of donating service Saturdays for a work which is directly benefiting the returning soldiers. Mr. Rowley was also authorized to employ help in his department as he needed it from time to time, preferably soldiers who were in need of employment.

VALLO NAUDAIN NEEDED

Vallo V. Naudain, who is in the service of Uncle Sam with the naval reserves, is badly wanted in Glendale by his brother, Earl R. Naudain, who greatly needs his help in the expanding business of the Glendale Electric Company.

Representations of the need have been made to the Navy Department and hope is entertained that he will be released since, now that the war is over, the men appear to be simply marking time. He is stationed at Palm Bay Park on Long Island Sound.

GUESTS FROM CANADA

Mr. and Mrs. Goulter Merrick, of Maryland avenue, received a surprise visit from their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Merrick, of Winnipeg, Canada, yesterday. They will probably stay for the balance of the winter with them. Mr. Goulter Merrick is a great booster for Glendale and expects to become a permanent resident here.

SERGT. ED KRACHEY

RETURNED FROM OVERSEAS FRIDAY AFTER EXPERIENCE ON METZ FRONT

Ed Krachey, of Raleigh street, returned from overseas Friday. It is unnecessary to say he is delighted to get back and his friends are very glad to see him safe and sound after his war experiences. He was with the Headquarters Company of the 346th Artillery, and when the war closed he was on the Metz front. His regiment did not get into action, but Ed, who was gas sergeant, and some of his comrades, had a chance to "go over" on detached service. He has brought home a big bunch of war souvenirs about which he has some interesting stories to tell. He seems to be reconciled to the ending of the war in spite of the fact that the regiment had been slated for the big offensive which was to have taken place at Metz on the 14th of November. They remained on that position until December 3d, when the regiment was sent to a port of debarkation and in due course Sergeant Krachey reached Camp Lewis, where he was honorably discharged.

He has made no definite plans for the future as yet. He is a civil engineer and says he has had several good offers which he is going to investigate.

HELPING TO OVERCOME SHORTAGE IN HOUSES

Mrs. Huldah M. Byram, of 228 North Glendale avenue, is doing her duty as a citizen in helping to overcome the shortage of houses for rent. She is building for investment a five-room bungalow at 227 North Cedar street, and her son-in-law, Mr. Banker, is supervising the work.

FATHERS' NIGHT

MANY GLENDALE MEN COME OUT TO ENJOY FINE PROGRAM AND DAINTY REFRESHMENTS

Glendale fathers are certainly not open to the reproach of being indifferent to school matters or the work of the Parent-Teacher Associations. A splendid audience responded to the invitation to attend a "Fathers' Night," given at the Intermediate School Monday evening by the Columbus Avenue P.-T. A., and men were largely represented.

The program included two charming vocal numbers by Mr. and Mrs. B. Edward Rees, who are new comers in the city residing on E. Los Feliz Road. They and their little son have been on the Chautauqua Circuit for months traveling continually, and they are finding it very delightful to settle down in a really truly home. Mrs. Rees sang as a solo number the "Open Secret" by Woodman, and she and Mr. Rees gave as a duet, "Shadows," Miss Gertrude Champlain furnishing the piano accompaniment.

Two readings by Mrs. Calvin Whiting were also greatly enjoyed, the first, a dialect number, "Jes' One Little Berry," followed by the "Romance of a Hammock."

Rev. E. H. Willisford was the speaker of the evening and told some very interesting things about the schools of France—"wonderful" (Continued on Page 3)

RECEPTION FOR BOYS

RETURNED SOLDIERS AND SAILORS TO BE THE HONORED GUESTS

Under the auspices of the Young People's Societies of the Glendale, Tropic and Eagle Rock Churches, there will be held a social evening for the young people of this Valley at the First M. E. Church Social Hall on Friday evening, February 21st, at 7:30 o'clock.

In addition to a social evening, there will be a reception for the returned soldier and sailor boys of this community and the following invitation has been sent out to those returned men whose addresses have been secured:

Where do we go from here, boys!
Where do we go from here?
To the M. E. Social Hall.
To have a time of cheer.
And all the boys in uniform,
Be Johnny on the spot.
Oh joy! Oh boy!
You'll find a welcome here.

DINNER FOR SOLDIERS

Mrs. F. W. Anderson, of 126 N. Louise street, entertained with a chicken dinner on Friday evening in honor of her son, Sergeant Howard L. Anderson, and two of his friends, Sergeants Watkins and Truax, all of whom recently returned from overseas.

Others who could not be present at the dinner, but who came to spend the evening, were: Sergt. Leslie Patch and Mrs. Olive Dow of Glendale and Miss Grace Dayton of Los Angeles.

REV. EDMONDS HONORED (?)

Editor Glendale Evening News:—

Dear Sir:—An article which appeared in the Glendale Evening News recently, gave the impression that certain local ministers had been honored above their brethren, in that they had been honored (?) with an invitation from the Governor to attend the "Peace Conference" at San Francisco.

Practically all the Presbyterian ministers in Southern California have received this "Circular Invitation" to the conference, and I suppose all denominations are represented. The amusing thing is that the recipient is expected to pay his own railroad fare and hotel expenses.

After showing the invitation to a select number of my friends, I placed it carefully in the waste paper basket unanswered.

W. E. EDMONDS.

SENATORS CHALLENGE PRESIDENT WILSON

BORAH DECLINES PRESIDENT'S DINNER INVITATION TO DISCUSS LEAGUE OF NATIONS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
Washington, Feb. 18.—Senator Borah today declined President Wilson's invitation to dine at the White House and discuss the league of nations. He based his action on two points. First, he said that he and the President are fundamentally at odds on the question of the league, and, secondly, he could not allow himself to be bound by a confidential discussion, no part of which he could use later in argument of public discussion.

Senator Borah is the first member of the Senate foreign relations committee to decline the President's invitation. Strong pressure was brought to have him accept.

Simultaneously it was announced that Senator Poindexter would disregard the President's request not to discuss the league of nations until his arrival by opening discussion in the Senate within a day or two. Poindexter gave notice that he would address the Senate on the league of nations tomorrow.

In the Senate Senator Vardaman of Mississippi spiritedly attacked Wilson for asking Congress to refrain from discussion of the plan for the league. Vardaman declared: "If the President thought more of the American people and their interests and less of his own personal triumph, he would have said to them, 'Discuss, analyze, dissect and tear to pieces the league of nations,' so they might be fully informed upon it."

WESTERN TROOPS REACH NEWPORT NEWS

69TH C. A., 54TH AMMUNITION TRAIN AND PART OF 61ST C. A. BROUGHT BY TRANSPORT "MERCURY"

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
Newport News, Va., Feb. 18.—The transport "Mercury" arrived today with over two thousand California, Oregon, Washington and Kentucky troops. They included the Sixty-ninth Coast Artillery, the Fifty-fourth Ammunition Train, the 853rd Stevedore Company and a detachment of the Sixty-first Coast Artillery.

CHARGES NEEDLESS HUMAN WASTE

GOV. ALLEN OF KANSAS TELLS HOUSE RULES COMMITTEE U. S. TROOPS WERE NEEDLESSLY SACRIFICED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
Washington, Feb. 18.—Governor Henry Allen of Kansas, testifying before the House rules committee today, declared that American troops were sacrificed needlessly during the last few hours of the war.

WOMEN WAR WORKERS PERSIST

ONLY A SMALL FRACTION OF THOSE IN "OVERALL JOBS" WHEN THE WAR CLOSED ARE QUITTING

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
Washington, Feb. 18.—The United States employment service report today shows that women who took men's jobs during the war are loth to relinquish them. Of a million and a half workers who were "in overall jobs" when the war ended, only a small percentage went back to home life or their former jobs.

The employment service declares this is a big factor in the present unemployment situation.

The report shows that the majority of the women who took men's jobs were already working women and were attracted by the chance for more pay. It is estimated in New York that only 10 per cent of the women war workers are quitting with the end of the war.

PERMANENT ARMISTICE AGREEMENT READY

NEW TERMS GUARANTEE PROTECTION TO GERMANY AGAINST ENCROACHMENTS OF ENEMIES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
Paris, Feb. 19.—The Allied armistice commission has practically completed its work of formulating new terms of the permanent armistice. It is expected that the new pact will be submitted to Germany in about a week. The armistice renewal agreement which was signed Sunday was temporary.

The new pact will contain added military and naval terms. The Allies have agreed to prevent Germany's enemies from encroaching upon German territory as along as the Germans themselves observe the terms of the armistice.

In accordance with this guaranty Marshal Foch wired Poland last night to cease its attacks on Germany.

The peace conference is expected to mark time while President Wilson is in the United States, the European leaders feeling the need of Wilson as spokesman for a nation which is not selfishly interested in European politics.

SHIPBUILDERS RETURN TO WORK

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
Oakland, Cal., Feb. 18.—Ninety-five per cent of the striking shipbuilders were back at work this morning.

NO MORE CHEAP CLOTHES, SAYS SIMEON BERMAN

Not much reduction can be expected in the cost of clothes, says Simeon Berman, the merchant tailor. Material costs will undoubtedly come down somewhat, but that saving will be more than made up by advancing wages as tailors are now demanding $30 a week for a seven-hour day, and no relief in sight.

MARKING TIME

CORPORAL CARL ENGLE WRITES HE EXPECTS SOON TO SAIL FOR U. S. A.

Recent letters from Corporal Carl Engle, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Engle, of 814 E. Harvard street, indicate that the unit to which he is attached is marking time while waiting to be returned to the States. On January 4th he writes: "At last we are back from the front where we have been since we left Marseilles in the middle of September except about two weeks when we were back for a rest. We are now at a small town (Laval) waiting for transportation back to the U. S. as our division, the 91st, is scheduled to sail in the near future."

"We left Cornay where I wrote last on the 19th of December, stopped for a couple of days at Châlons, then over night at Chateau Thierry. The next town was Paris. We had a fine dinner there at the Red Cross canteen Christmas Day and left the next day. We stopped one night on the road and the next day made Le Mans and the next day, the 28th of December, had reached our destination."

"I have received but one letter since the armistice was signed and that went to Coblenz, Germany, where we were supposed to have been (Continued on Page 3)

DEVELOPMENT MEETING

GREATER GLENDALE ASSOCIATION TO HOLD REGULAR SESSION TONIGHT

The regular weekly meeting of the Greater Glendale Development Association will be held this, Tuesday, evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Red Cross rooms above the Bank of Glendale, north of the Pacific Electric station. Better postoffice service and other important questions will come up for consideration. All citizens of the Glendale community are invited to be present and participate in the deliberations of the meeting.

NORTON C. WELLS,
President.
C. D. Lushy, Secretary.

SUNDAY DINNER PARTY

Mrs. C. N. Williams, of Maple avenue, was hostess at an afternoon dinner party Sunday in celebration of the birthday of her son, Harold, who, however, was not present, as he has not returned from overseas. It was also a coming home party for her son, Paul Williams, and for Lorenzo Reifenberick, who have recently been discharged from the army. Lorenzo is leaving in the near future to return to his old position with the Shell Oil Company in the northern part of the State. His parents formerly owned and managed the Tropic Hotel, but are now living at Compton. The little affair was likewise a farewell party for Miss Katherine Green, of La Canada, who is leaving soon to enter the government service in Washington, D. C. A white and yellow color scheme was carried out in decorations and table appointments, yellow acacia bloom being effectively used. The dinner was followed by an auto ride. Covers were laid for the following: Misses Louise and Katherine Green, Lorenzo Reifenberick, Paul Williams, Olive Williams, Ruth Williams and Mrs. C. N. Williams, hostess.

VIOLET LUNCHEON

Mrs. J. H. Franklin and her daughter, Mrs. Mabel Ocker, of 246 North Central avenue, were hostesses at a pretty three-course luncheon Saturday, violets centering a table dainty in all its appointments. Covers were laid for Mrs. A. R. Chappell, Mrs. C. M. Van Dyke, Mrs. Sarah Van Dyke, Mrs. Edward Dale and her mother, Mrs. Dale, Mrs. Blake Franklin and the hostesses. An afternoon of needlework and music followed the luncheon.

Mrs. J. H. Franklin and Mrs. Ocker also entertained at luncheon Monday, Miss Rachel Bayne of Portland, Ore., and Mrs. L. L. Williams of Los Angeles, two old friends.

P.-T. A. FEDERATION

CONSIDERS DESIRABLE SCHOOL LEGISLATION AND CANDIDATES FOR SCHOOL BOARDS

The Glendale Federation Parent-Teacher Association held their regular monthly meeting Feb. 17, 1919, in the library of the Intermediate School, 2:15 p. m., President Mrs. A. A. Barton in the chair.

The attendance was large and the members most enthusiastic, as they are now getting down to work interrupted by the conditions of the past season, although reports of the various committees show activity along their several lines.

Supervisor R. D. White spoke on bills which were just and which should have the hearty support from the Federation as they pertain to the welfare of the schools. These are Assembly Bills 242, 245, 654 and Senate Bill 403. Bills to be opposed Assembly 786; Senate 525.

These were unanimously endorsed and instructions ordered sent to the Legislator of the District.

The nominating committee presented the name of Mrs. Arthur Brown as candidate for the Grammar School Board which was unanimously accepted.

Mr. C. O. Pulliam, present incumbent, was unanimously endorsed for Trustee of High School Board, as was Blanche A. Gardner, of Eagle Rock, also for High School Board, which nomination caused great satisfaction to all present.

Prof. G. U. Moyses, of High School, spoke on "Responsibility of Parent and Teacher and the Necessity of the Opportunity for Chance of Expression in Young Life."

A resolution was read by President Barton to be sent to Governor Stephens recommending an entire change of policy and management in the Ventura School for Delinquent Girls. This resolution was unanimously adopted.

Mrs. Florence Kurtz spoke for the adoption of the Burnett Bill, prohibiting certain immigration for four years, which was accepted.

Mrs. Blake Franklin was elected as the Federation's delegate to the California Congress of Mothers, Mrs. I. Wernette and Mrs. Florence Kurtz being named as alternates. Mrs. John Robert White read a letter from the Eagle Rock Country Club requesting indorsement of Mrs. Blanche Gardiner's candidacy for the office of High School trustee.

Chairman of Publicity, Eva Daniels.

VALENTINE LUNCHEON

Mrs. E. J. Roberts was hostess at a very pretty four-course valentine luncheon last Friday. The table was elaborately decorated with red carnations, smilax, hearts and heart-shaped bon bon favors. A red and green color scheme was carried out in all the appointments. Mrs. Roberts is returning to Chicago next week after a stay of several weeks in Glendale in which she has been the recipient of considerable social attention.

Covers were laid for Mrs. A. W. Dow, Mrs. Harriet Dow, Miss Jennie Cornwell, her house guests, Mrs. Close and little daughter of Chicago, Mrs. W. W. McElroy, Mrs. Wash Hunt and Mrs. H. E. Bartlett.

ATTEND INDUSTRIAL LUNCHEON

W. B. Kirk and W. B. Kelley are representatives of the Greater Glendale Development Association at the Industrial luncheon given by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce at the Jonathan Club today.

Watt Moreland and other prominent men of the Southland qualified to speak on Industrial subjects are on the program.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS

NAME CHANGED FROM "TWIN CITY" TO GLENDALE LODGE, NEW MEMBERS INITIATED

Glendale Knights of Pythias have been a little slow. They were organized as the Twin City Lodge which was a fine name when Glendale and Tropic from which they drew their membership were separate entities. But the towns have been one for more than a year and only lately, after the city directory is in print,—have they changed their name to "Glendale Lodge," K. of P.

The lodge has also adopted Tuesday as its meeting night instead of Thursday, and is making an aggressive effort to build up its membership. Landon Haynes is Chancellor and E. R. Best, K. of R. and S.

At its last meeting, two or three new members were initiated, and more additions to its roster are in sight.

A BIG ADVERTISING YEAR

That 1919 is to be a big advertising year is freely predicted by those who know most about advertising. It will be a necessary part of the reconstruction movement. The resumption of activities in the manufacturing line which were suspended during the war, the readjustment of prices which will have to be made, the new materials and substitutes which will come into being as a result of discoveries of chemists and producers during the war, will all demand advertising, not only in the big centers of trade, but in the back country districts where the people are even less well posted on commercial conditions and products than in the cities. Furthermore, there is a revival of production and a revival of buying after the partial stagnation of the war period, and that always demands advertising. The man who is first in the field and who presents his case with the most intelligence and in terms of convincing appeal is going to attract the business whether he be in Watts or New York City. The day has passed when business can be attracted without advertising.

In this connection, the effect of the advertising done by the government in promoting bond issues, the sale of war savings stamps, etc., has been well set forth in "Western Advertising," as follows:

"Our war advertising, Liberty Bonds, Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., war savings stamps and all the others—opened the eyes of the most conservative to the educational value of good advertising.

"They have seen advertising weld a nation into one solid, homogeneous whole; a nation, too, of widely varied opinion as was ours, even at the time we entered the war. Probably it was the greatest unity of thought and purpose ever achieved. Surely it was a great tribute to the wonderful force of advertising.

"Big business men who in the past had intelligently used advertising, knew what advertising could accomplish. Had it not built their business and their fortune? But the number of men whose faith in advertising was so great, that they would not consider entering a business that could not be extensively advertised, was small.

"Today there is hardly a man, in business or out of it, who is not keenly alive to the value of advertising. Many are the business men who are anxiously wondering how they can use advertising to promote their business. They know what it can do—they believe in it—all they need and all they want is proper guidance."

WE'VE KEPT THE FAITH

The following beautiful poem, first published in a Los Angeles daily, should be of special interest in Glendale, which claims Miss Pixley as a citizen although she is temporarily residing in Hermosa:

[Another answer to the poem, "In Flanders Fields," by John McCrae.]

We have not broken faith with you, But caught the torch you, dying, threw.

In our warm hands we held it high, And wrote your names across the sky, While you were resting 'neath the dew.

Ye are not dead. Ye live as few Have ever lived. Nor lost to view Your spirits free, though bodies lie In Flanders fields.

The fight is won! And silenced, too, The guns that once poured fire on you.

To keep the torch of love held high,

It seemed a little thing to die, Though some of us sleep there with you

In Flanders fields.

OLIVE PIXLEY.

Hermosa Beach, Feb. 6.

THE S. O. S. WAS ANSWERED

When the Allies were beaten to a standstill And portentous gloom their hearts did chill

Uncle Sam, who had his ear to the ground, Heard on the cable an ominous sound.

This S. O. S. came under the wave, "Come with your help our cause to save"

"Send Liberty Boys we do entreat, On them rests our hope the foe to defeat."

This answer he sent it is quite brief, "Send over your ships, I'll give you relief"

He had called to the colors the best of his sons To go into battle 'gainst the confident Huns.

Soon they were rushing over the wave

The cause of the world they went to save. His boys had arrived at No-Man's Land.

And they rechristened it Yankee Land. His brave marines were soon in the fray

They pierced that gloom and let in a ray. Of an epoch day, it was the dawning;

To mankind it brought the morning; When with their steel the cloud was riven

Most glorious light to earth was given. Their page in history forever will shine

They opened the way for crossing the Rhine. A Niche high up in the Temple of Fame

None can deny them this mead to claim. —N. H. Palmer.

1136 E. Elk Ave., Glendale, Cal.

TUJUNGA

Mrs. Hubbard of Stephens Way is again very ill, but some better at present.

Mrs. Ward will entertain on Thursday, the 20th, all of the ladies of Tujunga who desire to sew for Los Angeles relief work. It will be an all-day session, Mrs. Ward to serve luncheon, and every lady is expected to furnish and make one garment, new or old. Word was received from the P. T. A. of Los Angeles that garments were needed and they would be glad to get them.

We had a wonderful rain following two cloudy days. The water came down in torrents all night, but there was no overflow or washouts.

Miss Petley, mother and two small children have rented Miss Arthur's cottage for a month to try out our climate for asthma.

Miss Pemberton, who has occupied the Duprey cottage the past nine months, will move into the Haverstick cottage, on San Ysidro Road, for the spring and summer.

Mr. Taylor, who purchased the Shivas place on El Centro, moved into his new home the first of the week and is much pleased with it.

We regret to learn to the sudden demise of Arthur Vernon, who lived on Marshall street. He came here with his wife less than a year ago, and while not in rugged health, this sudden passing was not expected. Mrs. Vernon is a daughter of George Slusher and is left to mourn his loss. A brother was here at the time. The remains were taken to Glendale for cremation.

Mr. Ashby had the misfortune last week to mislay a purse containing his own personal money. He was very sure where he left it, but nowhere could he find it. After a twenty-four hours' search he gave it up, and then came upon it accidentally where he remembered he had placed it for safe keeping. As we grow older all of us have similar experiences, and it reminds us of the woman who was often called upon to hunt up things her mother had mislaid. Finally she said to her mother: "Why don't you have a place for your things and keep them in it?" "Why, I do," was the reply. "I always put my things in place, but I forget where the place is."

Mr. Lewis, Sr., father of John Lewis, who formerly lived on Michigan Highway, passed away last week. He had been a great sufferer from heart trouble the last five years.

Mr. Zitto is laying the foundation for his new home on Monte Vista.

The Red Cross relief work still continues every Wednesday at Bolton Hall, and all who have the time are urged to ask to help.

The Womans Club will hold its next meeting on Thursday, Feb. 27, at the home of Mrs. Darlington, on Stephens Way, and will hold a session each month on the last Thursday at the same time until the weather is warmer. The hour is 2:30 p. m. Don't forget to come.

PALESTINE PAGEANT

Dr. Allen Moore's great Palestine Pageant is to be staged in Glendale each afternoon and evening from February 26th to March 3rd at the First M. E. Church in this city under the auspices of the State Sunday School Association and the Glendale Ministerial Association.

Rev. Allen Moore was for seventeen years a missionary among the Mohammedans and the Oriental Jews. His field of labor has been from Morocco through Northern Africa to Egypt and into the Holy Land. As a recognition of his exploration and research work he has been elected to fellowship in the Royal Geographical Society. Dr. Moore is the founder of two missions in Algeria, was special missionary envoy to the war in Morocco, and at the time of the bombardment of Casa Blanca he succored thousands of Jewish captives who had been forced into Mohammedanism and slavery. For five years he has been director of Palestine Expositions in the United States under the auspices of the Missionary Education Movement and other well-known organizations. He directed the Holy Land scenes and tableaux in "The World in Boston," "The World in Cincinnati," "The World in Baltimore" and "The World in Chicago," the greatest missionary expositions ever held in this country.

MARKING TIME

sent. We sent a truck up there after our mail which consisted of only about twenty letters, one of which was from you.

"We have only eight more days before we rate six months' foreign service. We will all be glad to see the Statue of Liberty again. We saw the original in Paris when we were there, also the Eiffel Tower, which is 'some tall.' So far we have seen as much of France as any company over here and will likely see more before we get back.

In a letter written January 15th Corporal Engle writes that he and his chum go hunting every night and the game is plentiful, as they sometimes get as many as a dozen cotties in one expedition. He says he would be willing to feed the animals if they didn't use his neck for a race track and be out practicing all the time."

On January 24th he writes: "Nothing has happened but the passing of the days since I last wrote you. If I ever get back to the old U. S. A. I don't think I will ever leave it again, but just the same I am glad I came over and saw some of the stunts that were put across. Some of the fields where the barrages were put over are just the same as if they had been plowed up for there was hardly a foot of ground that was not torn up and there are great holes several feet across and five and six feet deep. All the time you had to keep an eye out for old Jerry might come over with a plane load of bombs, but 'Le Guerre Finis' as the French say, so I guess we will soon be on the way back.

"We are now at a camp in the embarkation area. Have heard that we are to leave sometime between the first and twentieth of February and are expecting to be deloused any day.

"So far I haven't been able to see any of the boys from home except a few that came over with our division, the 91st. Saw the Todd boys, Ray and George, at Marseilles, on the Mediterranean Sea. That was just after we came over in July. Saw Don Rush, a Highland Park boy, in the 364th Supply Co. at Jony up near the Argonne in the early part of October just after the division came out of the lines."

Corporal Engle is a Wagoner in Co. A, 316th Ammunition Train. In one of his letters he enclosed a letter from his Lieutenant-Colonel commanding Co. A for the splendid services they rendered.

France!" as he characterized her, referring to her history and her many bloody battle fields, five out of the seven decisive battles in the world's history having been fought on French soil. He described her system of public education and the different premises on which it is built from the system in our own country. Here it is assumed that the child will begin in the primary and go through to the university. In France there are divisions in the system which begin with a tenth grade and ascend to first grade. There is what is known as "the popular course" which the child enters at about six years of age and finishes at twelve to fourteen years. Then there is the middle class school arranged to cover fundamentals and prepare pupils to enter the high school or the college or university later on. France has a compulsory education law, he says, which requires each boy and girl to complete a certain course of study before being free to take up avocations. The manual training work done in some of the French schools he visited was very similar, he said, to the work of pupils here. He also commented on the fact that a teacher's appointment there is a life job from which it is difficult to remove him, but that when he is too old to render satisfactory service as an instructor, the government pensions him. His visit to a schoolmaster who had been teaching in the same school for 30 years was described, also the fine courtesy with which he was received and entertained by master and students.

Mrs. C. M. Van Dyke, president of the Columbus Avenue P.-T. A., presided over the meeting, and Mrs. Leavitt, Chairman of Patriotism, introduced the entertainers.

Following the program, delicious refreshments were served in the domestic science room of the school.

TANKS FOR COMMERCE

(By United Press)
LONDON, Jan. 30. (By Mail).—The tanks are going after civilian jobs in the army of reconstruction.

The tank idea, developed in war from the American farm tractor, is not going to be abandoned in peace. Engineers are at work on designs for commercial highspeed tanks, or trucks with tank treads, and manufacture of these machines probably will keep the war tank factories running.

The advantages of the caterpillar tread, used in tanks, include less wear and tear on roads, greater mud-navigating powers, and great hill-climbing ability, it is claimed.

WHITE HOUSE MADE READY FOR WILSON

(By United Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—Everything at the White House has been put in tip-top shape for the return of President and Mrs. Wilson.

Although spring isn't here yet, the executive mansion has had its spring house cleaning from top to bottom, and considerable renovating has been done, for the historic house is beginning to show its age. War times have caused the appearance of the President's home to be neglected, and many buckets of paint have been used to keep up the custom, made necessary by our friends, the British, of keeping the White House white.

In the interior of the building, the historic color schemes, such as the blue and the green rooms have not been changed, but just here and there touches have been made to cover up the marks of time. Indicating that President and Mrs. Wilson are planning to resume White House social life, considerable work has been done on the big ball room. The floor has been refinished, new draperies hung, the gold piano "touched up" and the gorgeous tapestry presented a few months ago by the French government put in place.

Indications also are that the big state dining room, with its Roosevelt trophies of animal heads around the walls, once more will be a gathering place of international and national notables. Large tables are ready for it in place of the small one Mrs. Wilson placed there during the war. China fanciers are praising the design Mrs. Wilson selected for the china of the President's room. The dishes have the President's seal in gold in the center, with a thin gold band of 48-stars around the edge.

The private apartments of the President have been brightened up. Many of the gifts foreign nations have bestowed on the President will be used to adorn the White House, it is believed, taking places alongside historic gifts and furniture of Washington, Lafayette, Jefferson, Lincoln and Roosevelt.

The executive offices have not been forgotten in the cleanup, and the President's office, cabinet room and the offices of Secretary Tumulty have received coats of light green and white paint throughout. Even the press room has received its share.

Two chairs are ready for the cabinet room, for, following custom, each cabinet member takes his chair with him when he resigns. McAdoo has taken his, and the other new chair is to take the place of the one Attorney-General Gregory will carry away when he steps out, March 4th.

WAR WORK BUILDINGS WILL NOT LIE EMPTY

(By United Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—Temporary buildings housing the emergency wartime agencies are being turned over to the regularly established government departments as fast as they are vacated, under orders of the war department.

The new war industries board building, which was completed after the signing of the armistice, will be turned over to the treasury department. It is located about three blocks from the main treasury building.

The department of labor will take over "Food Administration building No. 2," which has just been vacated. The war department is now occupying the fuel administration annex building in the Potomac Park section.

The bureau of the census soon will move into the building known as "D," only a few blocks from the Capitol, and a portion of building "C" in the same neighborhood will be turned over to the department of agriculture.

AUSTRALIA HAS ZINC

(By United Press)
MELBOURNE, Jan. 27. (By Mail).—That Australia has ore deposits producing the finest grade of zinc in the world, and in quantity to compare favorably with other countries, is revealed in a report received by Acting Prime Minister Watt from the Electrolytic Zinc Co. one of the creations of the commonwealth for organizing the metal resources of the continent.

Although the British empire contains a great portion of the more easily accessible zinc ores of the world, it produced only a very small part of the 195,000 tons of primary spelter or zinc consumed in the United Kingdom alone in 1913. Australia before the war shipped annually zinc concentrates equivalent to 200,000 tons of spelter for supply of which England, France and Italy are now almost dependent upon America.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Feb. 18.—County free libraries would be more fitting memorials to America's service men than granite shafts. So declared Miss Stella Huntington, Santa Clara, at the state convention of county librarians here. The same theme was emphasized by State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Will C. Wood, who said that educational measures to meet the needs of America's millions of immigrants should be at once adopted, to lessen the number of illiterates and to raise the foreign born people to American standards.

TRADING FOR PORK

The executive budget system of providing for state expenses, advocated by Gov. Stephens, and practiced by every forward looking state and municipality in the country, is in a fair way of being adopted by the California legislature at the present session. The old (and present) method of putting through appropriations is well described by the California Taxpayers' Journal in the current issue:

"The average legislature, referring now to legislatures throughout the country and including the national congress, passes appropriation bills by the trading method. A member from district No. 1 wants to obtain $50,000 for a highway in his district. His constituents have intimated to him that it may be a bad thing for his future if he fails to get it. What does he do? He canvasses the situation with other members, ascertains what they want for their districts, what their constituents are clamoring for. The result is that the member from district No. 1 gets $50,000 included in the appropriation bill for his highway, the others get $10,000 for this, that and the other thing for their respective districts. The total may amount to hundreds of thousands or even millions. The minority frequently get nothing, but their constituents help to foot the bills for "improvements" in the districts represented by stronger and more fortunate members. Private appropriation bills galore are introduced and the time of committee is taken up in killing them when it could be devoted to something more important and more worth while. In congress the American system of making appropriations has resulted in a wild scramble for "pork;" in the state legislatures the condition is the same on a smaller scale. And in the states the taxpayers of the entire state are constantly paying for something that is of no possible benefit to them. The result of this haphazard method is chaos and almost complete inability on the part of the citizen to place responsibility for the increasing cost of government. It is everybody's business to determine the financial needs of the state; and what is everybody's business is nobody's business. Moreover, under such a system there is an entire absence of a state-wide point of view in financial affairs. It is nobody's constitutional or legal duty to gather the actual facts with reference to the expenditure of state moneys, measure the results accomplished by the expenditures, revise the estimated needs for an ensuing period, contrast past expenditures with future estimated needs, and send in the entire matter to the legislature in the form of a well balanced, comprehensive financial program covering the ensuing period."

QUACK, QUACK, QUACK!

(By United Press)
OAKLAND, Cal., Feb. 18.—Ben Woolner, former city attorney, is being sought out by many hunters who wish to inspect his "duckwerfer." Woolner claims to have originated a method for attracting wild ducks. He allowed a duck to dictate into his phonograph dictating machine, and then installed the machine with its new record near his post in the marsh.

Wild ducks mobilized from all points of the compass when Woolner's duck began squawking, and Woolner claims to have shot the legal limit in 15 minutes.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 18.—Another world-war in fifty years is the prediction of Major-General A. D. McRae, millionaire lumberman of Vancouver, B. C., who during the war had charge of the quartermaster's department of the Canadian forces.

"Fifty years hence," said McRae, "will see another terrible war of the nations of the world. The present generation is tired of wars, but civilization will not change its opinion of conflicts."

Every ordinance passed by the Butte County Board of Trustees since 1917 is illegal. Discovery of this fact was made when Friend W. Richardson, state treasurer, called attention to the fact in 1917 the law relative to the publication of ordinances in cities of the fifth class was amended to make necessary three publications of every ordinance instead of one, as previously the law.

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., Feb. 18.—Seaside hog and poultry raisers are combatting the high cost of feed by giving their swine and hens a generous ration of green kelp. Experience is that hogs will grow and thrive on the sea food, but when it comes to the fattening and finishing process grain is necessary in order to give body and firmness to the meat. The laying hen's diet is also varied by the introduction of mussels, barnacles and shark meat. However, say poultrymen, too much of the marine food is in taboo with the laying hen as the tendency is to give the eggs a fishy taste.

LOOKS DARK, JOHNNIE; TEACHERS WON'T STRIKE

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Feb. 18.—Teachers in other California cities are expected to follow the lead set here and form teachers' unions affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. Thirty-six such locals, having 10,000 members, now exist in the United States.

After considerable effort, a robust union has been organized here. One of its precepts is that there shall be no strike.

National Organizer L. V. Lampson announced that the union frowns on strikes or anything else that would interrupt the education of children.

"We will rely upon publicity, organization and political action to obtain what we consider a fair wage and proper working conditions," he said.
